

Robinson named director of Parole Region II

Alethea Robinson has been selected as the Region II director for the Parole Division, effective April 15. The Parole Division supervises offenders released from prison who are serving out their sentences in Texas communities.

Robinson has more than 21 years of criminal justice experience with the Parole Division, beginning her career as a parole caseworker at the Dallas III District Parole Office. She has held the positions of parole officer, unit supervisor, parole supervisor and assistant regional director.

Alethea Robinson

Robinson has a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Southern University and A&M College, and a Master of Science degree in Criminal Justice from Kaplan University.

Parole Division Director Pamela Thielke commended Robinson's selection, saying, "Ms. Robinson's experience includes a strong focus on oversight, training and staff relations. Please join me in congratulating Alethea as she assumes this new leadership role." ▲