Cogbill named director of Interstate Compact Office for Parole Division

Sherri Cogbill has been selected as director of the Parole Division's Interstate Compact Office for Probation and Parole Supervision. The Interstate Compact Office coordinates the transfer of offender supervision to states outside the state of conviction.

After working in bank operations and management for more than six years, Cogbill began her criminal justice career in 2006 as a TDCJ parole officer and later promoted to internal reviewer for the Parole Division. She also served as an auditor with the Community Justice Assistance Division and most recently as a Program Supervisor V with the Reentry and Integration Division. Parole Division Director Pamela Thielke commended the selection, saying "Sherri's extensive and diverse background will serve the agency well as she assumes her new responsibilities."

Cogbill received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Houston Baptist University, with a double major in Psychology and Studio Art. ●
